Trip To Germany

Mrs. F. M. Alley (left) of Pamplin and her grandson, Matt Lair, have just returned from a three-week stay in Frankfort Germany where they visited Mrs. Alley's son, Edwin Alley and his wife. It was Mrs. Alley's first airplane trip. While there they saw Mrs. Clara Harrison, of Alabama, a friend of Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson, of Appomattox. Mrs. Alley agrees that it was a joyful surprise to meet and talk with an American in a foreign land! Both Matt and Mrs. Alley were impressed with old cathedrals and many unusual sights including the big Frankfort Zoo, one of the largest in the world. They had many adventures, thanks to overdue planes and holiday travel.

ROCKS

Jan. 17 – It was zero cold here over the week end. The coldest weather of the winter.

A number here attended the shower given the Book family at Pamplin last Monday night.

Mrs. W. R. Moore and Mrs. R. E. Roach were doing some quilting Tuesday.

William A. Hamilton passed away in Lynchburg last week.

Russell Paulette of Lynchburg General Hospital Thursday afternoon on his 80th birthday. Mrs. John Williams died at Lynchburg General Hospital on Thursday. She was the aunt of Mrs. Agnes Fleshman. Sympathy is extended these families.

A number attended the graveside service for S. R. Paulette at Evergreen Saturday afternoon.

Andrew Paulette of Upland, Calif. arrived Tuesday night for a few days.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Clara Garrett and Mrs. Alice Jackson in the death of their brother, Garland Farmer of Texas.

Rev. W. H. Elder was visiting in a number of homes last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee Elder of Richmond spent the week end here.

Rev. W. H. Elder brought a fine sermon on Sunday morning.

On January 24 at 7:30 a musical "What's It All About, Anyhow" will be presented here at Rocks by a youth group from a number of churches in the Evergreen area. A large crowd is expected, so come early. Courtney Harris of the Evergreen passed away at Lynchburg General Hospital early Sunday morning. Sympathy is extended the family.

Flu Wonderland

Winter is a flu wonderland.

Like the common cold, flu is an infection of the upper respiratory tract. But it is much more severe. Flu viruses can work their way into the breathing passageways and damage the lingings, then spread to the air sacs where oxygen and carbon dioxide are exchanged. The workings of the entire body can be disrupted.

Antimicrobial drugs do not attack flu viruses but they can work to fend off other complications. With bed rest and medical attention, most people recover in a few days or weeks from the flu. But if the infection is not properly tended, complications like pneumonia can set in.

There are several diff types of pneumonia, some mo serious than others. But about half of them are caused by viruses, and antibiotics are ineffective in treating types of pneumonia caused by bacteria. "Walking pneumonia," whose symptom is usually a violent cough, is still another kind of infection caused by the smallest free-living agent of disease called mycoplasma. This agent cannot be called a virus or a bacteria, but has the characteristics of both. Antibiotics can help combat this infection.

Anyone with suspicious symptoms of violent coughing, chills, chest pains, fever, and headache, should call his doctor immediately. Infections of the respiratory tract, even when they respond to antibiotics, demand early diagnosis and treatment. The pneumonia-influenza disease group is the country's fifth leading killer.

To support the struggle against respiratory disease, answer your Christmas Seal letter. There's more to do.

Raiders Fight Back For 66-64 Win Over WC

David Johnson came off the bench in the fourth quarter, stole the ball for a layup to put Appomattox ahead with about 60 seconds to play and Ricky Garrett followed a few seconds later with a foul shot to give the Raiders a 66-64 Seminole District basketball win over the William Campbell Generals last Friday night at Appomattox. A standing room only crowd nearly went wild as the game drew to a close and saw the Raiders up their record to 9-2 overall and 6-2 in district. A large crowd of fans were turned away as seating and standing room ran out.

It looked as if the Generals were going to run away with it in the first quarter as they went out to a 10-4 lead, but the Raiders came back to tie the score at 14-14 as the quarter ended. In the second quarter Appomattox turned it on as they ripped off the first five points for a 19-14 lead as led by as many as nine in that quarter and held a 37-30 lead at the half. Leon Robinson, Ricky Garrett and Bobby Layne had scored all but four of the Raider points at the half with all of them being in double figures. The Generals outscored the Raiders 23-19 in the third quarter and cut the lead to 56-53. It changed hands a few times in the last half as neither team could get more than a three point lead. The Generals led by three points with about two minutes to go, but in that time Layne hit two free throws and Garrett hit a basket while WC only scored two points and it was 64-63 in favor of WC. Johnson then got a steal, made the layup for 65-64 Raider lead and in an attempt to get the ball the Generals fouled Garrett and he hit the first of a one and one free throw for a 66-64 lead. The Generals then blew a close of shots under the basket and Leon Robinson pulled in the last rebound as the game ended.

Leon Robinson led the Raiders with 20 points and 17 rebounds. He hit 10 of 14 shots from the floor and was six for six in the first half. He was followed by Bobby Layne with 19, Ricky Garrett with 13 and Ken Gafford with nine.

Ricky Purcell led all scorers as he hit for 25 points, 11 of them from the foul line. He was followed by Gary Oldesky with 15 and Wayne Lovelace with 14.

The Generals outshot Appomattox from the floor percentage wise with 22 of 52 for 42%. Appomattox was 28 of 73 for 38%. The Raiders had a 39-25 edge in rebounds and the turnovers were close with the Raiders making 10 and WC nine.

Ferguson's Shot Gives Raiderettes 34-33 Win

Pat Ferguson hit on a shot from inside half court as the buzzer sounded to give the Appomattox Raiderettes a 34-33 win over the William Campbell girls in a Seminole District basketball game played at Appomattox last Friday night.

Ferguson's shot came with William Campbell leading 33-32 and the Raiderettes got the ball with one second showing on the clock as Appomattox took a time out. The ball was tossed in to Ferguson who was standing at half court, and she turned and with both hands pushed the ball toward the basket in the net for two points and a victory. It was similiar to a championship game as the crowd went wild and she got a ride from the floor on her teammates shoulders.

The Raiderettes got off to a 9-14 lead in the first quarter and led 18-12 at the half. In the third quarter the lead vanished as the William Campbell girls outscored Appomattox 11-4 and led 23-22 going into the last quarter. Jane Hix hit six points in that last quarter, all on clutch shots and Ferguson hit for five as the Raiderettes came from behind for the win.

Hix's led Appomattox with 10 points, Ferguson finished with 9 and Mary Louise McCraw had 8, Frankie Booker led WC with 11 and Karen Scott had nine.

The Raiderettes hit 14 of 34 shots from the floor and six of 18 free throws while William Campbell hit on only 11 of 50 from the floor and 11 of 22 free throws. The WC girls outrebounded Appomattox 39-21.

Robinson Is 'Sparkplug'

Larry Robinson, of Appomattox, a junior forward on the University of Tennessee's Vols basketball team has been termed a "sparkplug" in the Vols opening surge, which has seen the Orange rated ninth by both Litkenhous and Carr services. Larry had 16 rebounds and 14 points (5-11 from field, 4-5 from line) against California (Irvine), 12 rebounds and 14 points (5-12, 4-5) against Houston, 14 rebounds and 18 points (7-10, 4-5) against Penn State and 7 rebounds and 10 points (3-5, 4-5) against Michigan State in finals of Volunteer Classic. The junior forward was named to the Volunteer Classic all-tournament team.

Jordan Baptist

Let us plan now to attend church on Sunday. Service will begin at 11 a.m. A part of our service for Sunday will be the installation of officers for 1972.

The members of the Jordan community wish Rev. and Mrs. Johnny Paige a most speedy recovery and would like for them to know that our prayers are with them.

MRS. BRIGHTWELL'S 4-H

On January 7, 1972 Mrs. Brightwell's 4-H Club was called to order by our President, Steve Cobb.

The secretary Tammy Book read the minutes of the last meeting. The song leaders Kim Hipps and Martha Chandler lead us in some songs.

Then the meeting was turned over to Mr. Smith who lead us in a conversation about exploring plants. Then the meeting was adjourned.
